

G C G C

Mmmm Mmmm

GIndiana wants meC but I Dcan't go back there

GIndiana wants meC but I Dcan't go back there

CI wish GI had Dyou to Gtalk to

EmIf a man ever Eneeded dying, Ahe did

GNo one had the right to say what Che said

DAbout you

And Fit's so cold and lonely here withCout you

AmOut there, the law's a-comin'

DI'm scared and so tired of running

GIndiana wants meC but I Dcan't go back there

GIndiana wants meC but I Dcan't go back there

CI wish GI had Dyou to Gtalk to

EmIt hurts to Esee the man that AI've become

GAnd to know I'll never see the Cmorning sun

Shine Don the land

I'll Fnever see your smiling face

Or Ctouch your hand

AmIf just once more I could see

DYou, our home and our little baby

GIndiana wants meC but I Dcan't go back there

GIndiana wants meC but I Dcan't go back there

G C (SDIREGNS)C D

C I wish G I had D you to G talk to

E I hope this E letter finds its A way to you

G Forgive me love for the shame I C put you through

And D all the tears

F Hang on love, to the memories of those C happy years

A m Red lights are flashing around me

D Yeah, love, it looks like they found me

G Indiana wants me C but I D can't go back there

G Indiana wants me C but I D can't go back there

C I wish G I had D you to G talk to

(over top of 2nd Chorus) This is the police You are surrounded Give yourself up
